

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The Applicant will pay for all services in accordance with and subject to rates, policies, rules and regulations of the Cooperative, established by the Board of Directors from time to time.
2. The Applicant will comply with, and be bound by, the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation and the by-laws of the Cooperative and all amendments and additions thereto and such policies, rules and regulations, may from time to time, be adopted by the Cooperative.
3. The Applicant will become a member of the Cooperative and assumes no personally liability or responsibility for any debts or liabilities of the Cooperative, and it is expressly understood that under the law his or her private property is exempt from execution for any such debts or liabilities.
4. The Applicant agrees to permit the Cooperative to place, construct, operate, maintain, relocate and replace thereon and in or upon all streets, roads, and highways abutting said lands, an electric Distribution line of system, the ownership of which shall be vested in the Cooperative. Cooperative employees will be allowed access to the property to maintain service, including the trimming or cutting down of trees, in order to preserve reliable service.
5. The Applicant further agrees that when the power lines are built, as part of the consideration for the Cooperative's installation of the meter loop/cabinet on the property, that such meter loop/cabinet shall be deemed part of the Cooperative's system and not part of the Applicants property. In such event, the Cooperative shall always have the right to access the meter and should the Applicant default in any of his/her obligations to the Cooperative, the Cooperative shall have the right to disconnect service without formal notice.
6. The Applicant agrees to accept these terms and conditions for any other additional services applied for under this membership.
7. MEC will not provide a meter socket for any service termination on a building. MEC will provide secondary wire to the metering point which is near or adjacent to the transformer location. MEC reserves the right to place the metering where it makes practical sense for the Cooperative. MEC will work with the Applicant to be sure all aspects of the meter location have been considered.
8. The Applicant understands that MEC may use automated messaging to communicate outages, planned or unplanned, delinquent balances, impending disconnects or re-connects, prepaid billing notifications and other information. By disclosing a mobile, landline, or other phone number, the Applicant agrees that MEC or its agents or contractors can call the Applicant on that number using a pre-recorded telephone dialer and/or that MEC or its agents or contractors can leave a pre-recorded and/or text message on that number.
9. The Applicant will be enrolled in Operation RoundUp, a charitable program that rounds their electric bill up to the nearest dollar. Charitable contributions received through Operation

RoundUp are distributed via application through McLean Electric Trust. Those in need appreciate your commitment. You may opt out by checking the box on your electric bill or by calling our office.

10. STATEMENT OF NONDISCRIMINATION- McLean Electric is an equal opportunity provider and employer.
11. Upon divorce of the parties holding a joint membership, and notice of divorce to MEC, such membership shall be held solely by the party who continues to purchase electric service at the same property, provided the former joint member spouse shall not be released from any debts due to MEC prior to the notification of divorce. Capital credits allocated prior to the divorce shall be divided as set forth in the Judgement of Divorce. If there is no mention of capital credits in the Judgement, capital credits shall be divided equally.
12. The Applicant understands that bylaws and policies are subject to change. Any by-laws or policies you receive at the time of this application are the policies in effect at the time of the application. You agree to be bound by all amended bylaws and policies.
